Sebastian Fagerlund

Sebastian Fagerlund (geb. 1972) ist einer der bedeutendsten europäischen Komponisten seiner Generation. Er studierte Komposition an der Sibelius Akademie in Helsinki unter der Leitung von Erkki Jokinen und erhielt 2004 sein Diplom.

Wichtige Aspekte Fagerlunds Werke sind sein Interesse an großangelegten Formen und eine tiefgreifende Sicht auf die Musik, womit er grundlegende Fragen und existentielle Erfahrungen zum Ausdruck bringt. Laut BBC Music Magazine zeigt er „grenzenlose technische Ressourcen im Dienst eines beachtlichen Einfallsreichtums“. In all seinen Werken ist eine hohe Instrumentationskunst und ein starker Sinn für Musikalität spürbar, deren musikalische Dramatik mit kraftvollem Ausdruck und lebendiger Tonsprache sowie einer Offenheit gegenüber verschiedenen musikalischen Traditionen kombiniert ist.

Fagerlunds Werke wurden von zahlreichen großen Orchestern in Auftrag gegeben und von herausragenden Dirigenten und Musikern auf der ganzen Welt aufgeführt. Sein Gesamtwerk umfasst Opern, Kammer- und Solowerke, wobei seine bedeutendsten Kompositionen seine Opern und Orchesterwerke sind. Zu den Interpreten seiner Werke zählen das BBC Symphony Orchestra, das Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra, das Finnish Radio Symphony Orchestra, das Singapore Symphony Orchestra, das NDR Elbphilharmonie Orchester, das Buffalo Symphony Orchestra und das Netherlands Radio Philharmonic Orchestra. Fagerlund arbeitet mit Dirigenten und Musikern wie Dima Slobodeniouk, Anne Sofie von Otter, Edward Gardner, Hannu Lintu, Pekka Kuusisto, Sakari Oramo, Osmo Vänskä und John Storgårds eng zusammen und er war Guest Composer bei zahlreichen internationalen Festivals wie dem Aspen Music Festival, dem Baltic Sea Festival und dem Kuhmo Chamber Music Festival.

Für sein Orchesterwerk Ignite erhielt Fagerlund 2011 Finnlands wichtigsten Musikpreis, den Teosto-Preis. Im selben Jahr wurde Ignite vom International Rostrum of Composers in Wien empfohlen. In der Saison 2016/17 war er Composer in Residence beim Royal Concertgebouw in Amsterdam. Seine Oper Höstonaten (Herbstsonate) wurde in der Saison 2017/18 an der finnischen Nationaloper mit großem Erfolg uraufgeführt. Die Financial Times beschrieb sie als „Eindrucksvoll. Hervorragend.“ 2018 erhielt die Aufnahme seines Fagottkonzertes Mana den BBC Music Magazine Award in der Kategorie „Solokonzert“.

Seit 2013 ist Fagerlund künstlerischer Leiter des RUSK Chamber Music Festival in Jakobstad, Finnland. Aufnahmen seiner Werke erscheinen bei dem Label BIS.

Sebastian Fagerlund

Sebastian Fagerlund (b.1972) has established himself as one of the most prominent European composers of his generation. He studied composition at the Sibelius Academy in Helsinki under the guidance of Erkki Jokinen and received his diploma in composition in 2004.

Important aspects of Fagerlund's work are his interest in large-scale forms and a profound view of music expressing fundamental questions and existential experiences. Fagerlund was described in BBC Music Magazine as displaying 'boundless technical resource at the service of a considerable imagination.' A highly virtuosic instrumental feel and strong sense of musicianship is noticeable in all of his works, creating musical dramas in which powerful expression is combined with intensity and vivid communication, as well as an openness towards different musical traditions.

Works by Fagerlund have been commissioned and performed by numerous major orchestras, outstanding conductors and musicians all over the world. His output spans opera to chamber and solo works, the most significant pieces being his operas and works for orchestra. Performers of his works include the BBC Symphony Orchestra, Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra, Finnish Radio Symphony Orchestra, Singapore Symphony Orchestra, NDR Elbphilharmonie Orchester, Buffalo Symphony Orchestra, Netherlands Radio Philharmonic Orchestra and he has worked closely with conductors and musicians such as Dima Slobodeniouk, Anne Sofie von Otter, Edward Gardner, Hannu Lintu, Pekka Kuusisto, Sakari Oramo, Osmo Vänskä and John Storgårds. Fagerlund has been guest composer at numerous festivals around the world, such as Aspen Music Festival, Baltic Sea Festival and Kuhmo Chamber Music Festival.

In 2011 Fagerlund was awarded Finland's renowned Teosto Prize, one of the largest music prizes in Scandinavia, for his orchestral work Ignite. The same year Ignite was also selected as a recommended work at the International Rostrum of Composers 2011 in Vienna. In season 2016/17 Fagerlund was appointed Composer in Residence at the Royal Concertgebouw in Amsterdam, Holland. His opera Höstsonaten (Autumn Sonata) was premiered at the Finnish National Opera in season 2017/18 to great critical acclaim. The Financial Times described the opera as 'Striking, Superb.' In 2018 the recording of his Bassoon Concerto Mana received the BBC Music Magazine Awards in the Concerto Category.

Since 2013 Fagerlund has been artistic director of the RUSK Chamber Music Festival in Jakobstad, Finland. Fagerlund's music is available on record label BIS.
